-----NOTES & NUMBERS-----

FEELING BLUE- Colorado has benefited from tremendous point production from the blue line, as defensemen Jacob MacDonald and Calle Rosen both rank in the top 10 among all AHL blueliners with 12 points. In addition, MacDonald's six goals through his first 15 games are tied for the most among the league's defensemen. Rosen has produced six points this season via specialty teams, which is tied with Jayson Megna for the team lead. The veteran also comes into tonight's contest riding a four-game point streak.

TIGHTLY PACKED- There is little wiggle room in the AHL's Pacific Division to start the 2024-25 season. The Calgary Wranglers have raced out to the top spot with 27 points through their first 19 games. However, second place and eighth place are currently separated by just six points. Colorado has 20 points, including seven of a possible eight points in the team's last four games.
