-----NOTES & NUMBERS-----

OFF THE HOP- The opening 20 minutes could prove pivotal in today's contest, as the Eagles have outscored the opposition 16-7 in first periods this season, while the Silver Knights have been outscored 26-15 in the opening frame. Colorado has netted the game's first goal 14 times this season, the most in the AHL. The Eagles have only trailed twice this season when heading into the first intermission, while the Silver Knights have found themselves behind after the first period nine times, going 0-9 in those outings.

IN & OUT- Forward Jere Innala scored the game-winning goal in the Eagles 5-2 win over Henderson last night and now has points in four straight games and has notched at least one point in nine of his last 11 outings. Innala is now tied for third on the team in both points (13) and assists (9) and is tied for first on the roster with three multi-point games. The ninth-year pro is in his first season in North America and represented his native Finland at the World Championships on three occasions.
